“Venice Avenue is better than ever,” says Renee Dees, owner and second generation at St. Marco Boutique. “The lush landscaping, including the palm trees that line the sidewalks, and the lively downtown area have made Venice a popular destination for visitors, one that those of us who live here are proud to call home.”

A wide variety of women’s upscale clothing and accessories await you in the bright, happy and welcoming shopping environment at St. Marco. From greeting you upon arrival, everyone on staff at the boutique will assist you as much as you would like. It was 35 years ago that Ruth Burchert opened a women’s specialty shop that focused on unique and classic styles for the well-traveled woman.

Today, much remains unchanged by Ruth’s daughter, Renee. “Shopping must be pleasing to all the senses,” she offers. “It’s the feeling we hope you have when you enter our doors. We put considerable thought into our window display, which is our invitation that encourages women to try on different things or think outside the box with their style choices.”

Whether you’re walking our beaches, golfing or attending the symphony, we have you covered. Representing a wide spectrum of sizes, St. Marco is proud to be Florida’s largest retailer of TRIBAL Inc. sportswear. From skorts and bermudas to trendsetting jeans, a vast variety awaits you, and Joseph Ribkoff is a great choice when looking for dressier options.

Many eclectic lines offer something a little unique that you won’t find in other boutiques. We can all give back in some way. Fair Trade jewelry and handbags from Nepal, Brazil, and Bangladesh not only aid their artisans, but make great conversation pieces and gifts.

Our vision for 2020 is that you leave us, having had a fabulous experience, having received great customer service, and taking home a shopping bag full of perfect finds. Spend the day strolling throughout downtown Venice, enjoy shopping and dining in our slice of paradise, and never see a parking meter. Renee says, “After 35 years, it never gets old treating our customers like family.”
