Discover Paradise Grill, where it's always tiki time! Enter this Nokomis eatery, and you'll be charmed by its warm, inviting vibe; inspired, quality-driven menu; and friendly staff. In fact, when you arrive, you'll find that the restaurant's team will make you feel welcome at this casual neighborhood meeting place.

Having over 35 years in the restaurant industry, owner Mary Beth Hansen saw a niche in the area's food scene that needed to be filled: a place with a comfortable atmosphere where people could gather to enjoy great cocktails and food—all at a reasonable price.

Mary Beth has accomplished this and more with the Paradise Grill. Since opening its doors in January 2016, this unpretentious getaway has become a desired destination for locals, snowbirds, and visitors. In fact, over the past year, Paradise Grill has walked away with several awards in its industry, including Best of Venice recognition from the Venice Gondolier as the Best Tiki Bar and Best Lunch.

The many patrons come for a number of reasons, but always stay to savor the variety of delectable dishes on the creative menu. In the kitchen, the cuisine is prepared by skilled chefs using quality ingredients that ignite each entree with flavor. Seafood favorites such as salmon, shrimp, trout and tuna are wild-caught, delivering an authentic taste of seafood to every palate. Each day, an assortment of local produce, baked buns and breads arrive fresh, along with a delivery of select fruits from nearby farms used for preparing the restaurant's citrus-squeezed juices. tiki hut. No matter where you're from, Paradise Grill welcomes you to become part of its growing family.

"We have fantastic chefs always coming up with new specials and using seasonal ingredients."

You'll find there's a wide selection of beer on tap accompanied by island-style mixed drinks. New favorites, like the Mac Daddy, are always being concocted by the lively bartending staff. Seven days a week, stop in for a sweet sip and join the fun as live music sets the perfect dining ambiance. From soothing sounds of acoustic guitar and classic rock to upbeat Friday night DJ Dance parties, this tropical dining retreat will have you on your feet, movin' and groovin' to the beat! "Live music has been part of the Paradise Grill experience since we opened the doors," says Mary Beth, "and it always draws a crowd."
